

Travelling to Pilani

Introduction:

Travelling to BITS Pilani can be a unique experience, especially for those venturing there for the first time. Located in the rural town of Pilani in Rajasthan, it is somewhat isolated from major cities, making the journey quite an adventure.

How to Reach Pilani:

Pilani is not directly connected by air or train, so reaching the campus usually involves a combination of transportation modes.

The most common approach is to travel by train or air to Delhi or Jaipur and then take a bus or taxi from there to Pilani.

From Delhi:

The bus journey from Delhi is approximately 5-6 hours long. Buses are available from ISBT Kashmere Gate and Dhaula Kuan.

Alternatively, cabs can be hired for a more comfortable ride.

Trains can be taken to Loharu Junc. And cabs will be available at the station, which can be taken to reach the campus.

Travel Tips:

Book Tickets in Advance: Always book train or bus tickets well in advance, especially during admission season or college events.

Carry Essentials:

Pilani is a small town, so carry essential items with you as options for shopping are limited.

Prepare for Weather: Summers can be harsh, so carry sunscreen, caps, and light clothing if visiting during that time.

Conclusion:

Despite the somewhat challenging journey, Pilani's charm and the vibrant campus life at BITS make the trip worthwhile.

Whether you are a student, parent, or visitor, being prepared will enhance your travel experience.

Note:

Please note kindly that BITS Pilani and BITSMUN would not be liable to make travel arrangements for participants. All delegates are requested to arrange their trip by themselves to the venue. But we can offer any possible assistance or guide you online as and when needed to arrange your trip appropriately. We kindly seek your cooperation and understanding regarding this.
